Project: Remembering
Goodna:
Stories from a Queensland Mental Hospital
Exhibition

For the provocative and challenging exhibition shedding light on the hidden history of Queensland's largest and oldest mental hospital. Using primary and secondary source material, personal reminiscences of former staff and patients, and an array of historical material, the project promotes a better understanding of the social history and issues of mental health, as well as the Wolston Park Hospital complex itself.
