Brisbane	Venue: Museum of Brisbane Ground Floor, 157 Ann St, Brisbane	Somewhere in the City: Urban Narratives by Robert Brownhall Brisbane born and educated painter Robert Brownhall is locally inspired. Since his first art student exhibition he has garnered a loyal following, given the resonance of his largely South East Queensland subject matter. His quirky style and signature bird's-eye view of scenes, characterised by a strong connection to place, was informed by his earlier day-job as a tree lopper. The moody nocturnes, broad sweep panoramas and gritty vignettes of urban life witnessed by Brownhall and translated into paint, have for many years extended the poetry long associated with Brisbane. This exhibition at Museum of Brisbane is the first survey of his work and encompasses twenty years of painting. It records the changing face of Brisbane during one of the most dynamic periods of its history.	Times: Sun 8 to Sun 15 May: 10am to 5pm Exhibition continues until 31 July 2011. Entry is free. Contact Details: Museum of Brisbane T: 3403 6363 E: mob@brisbane.qld.gov.au W: www.museumofbrisbane.com.au

Brisbane - Yeronga	Venue: Yeronga Memorial Park	Yeronga Park and Garden History The Australian Garden History Society was formed in 1980 to bring together people with interests in the history and evolution of gardens and gardening. The Society's mission is to be the leader in the conservation of significant cultural landscapes and historic gardens through committed, relevant and sustainable action. The Society has around 2,000 members Australia-wide, with active branches in all states. Our branch has a newsletter and an activity/event each month. The Society and the National Trust share objectives to record and conserve places with high cultural heritage values. In May we will lead a tour of heritage listed Yeronga Memorial Park, which was reserved in 1888, exploring its history and landscape features. We will also look at some nearby residential gardens. Cost is $10 for NTQ and AGHS members and $15 for visitors. Bookings are essential.	Times: May 22 - Contact Society for more details. Contact Details: Australian Garden History Society Queensland T: 3341 3933 E: jorgenkg@picknowl.com.au
