Please join the National Trust

The National Trust of Queensland is a community-based membership organisation.

By joining the Trust you will be supporting our commitment to conserve and promote the natural, Indigenous and cultural heritage of our State. The focus of the Trust's activities is heritage and environmental education. Through its properties, advocacy and research, the Trust encouraged the community understand and care for our significant places, wildlife, and stories.

To undertake these valuable activities, the Trust relies heavily on the work of its many volunteers. To fund these activities, the Trust receives income from membership and property admission fees, sponsorships, donations, and some government grants.

The National Trust has reciprocal visiting arrangements with other Australian and international heritage organisations that offer free and discounted entry to many heritage properties.

Please join the National Trust of Queensland and you will be:

- Provided with free and discounted entry to National Trust properties worldwide.
- Supporting the Trust's heritage, advocacy and environmental activities.
- Supporting the cost of maintaining and operating our valuable heritage sites.

Reciprocal visiting arrangements

Although Queensland National Trust membership bestows free and discounted access to places please note that in some instances a charge may be levied for special events, parking or for access to a property. Please bear in mind that access for Queensland National Trust members to interstate and overseas Trust properties is a courtesy, not a right.

Access and Opening times

Access and opening and closing times are subject to change. We urge you to obtain an up-to-date copy of the local NT property guidebook or brochure for the country or area you are visiting, or check the property information on the websites listed.
